The Women's National Book Association-Ann Heidbreder Eastman Grant

PUBLISHING GRANT

The Women's National Book Association-Ann Heidbreder Eastman Grant is available for librarians interested in learning about the relationship between the library and publishing professions.

The WNBA offers a grant of up to $750 for a librarian to take a course or participate in an institute devoted to aspects of publishing as a profession or to provide reimbursement for such study completed within the past year.

Eligibility: Librarians holding an MLS or its equivalent and having at least two years of post master's work experience in a library are eligible to apply. The primary criterion will be the likelihood of career benefit to the person taking the course.

Deadline: November 1, 2006

For More Information: Guidelines are available at www.ala.org/work/pubs/eastman.html or contact the GrantAdministrator, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611; fax: 312-280-4380; rtoler@ala.org.
